

Online Recruiting

Vol. 4 No. 5 May 2002 www.hunt-scanlon.com

Strategist

Recruitsoft Opens Offices In Asia-Pacific

San Francisco, CA-based Recruitsoft, a provider of Web-based hiring management systems, has expanded its operations in the Asia-Pacific with the opening of offices in Singapore. With the company's expansion, Paul Callander has been appointed as director of Asia-Pacific business development and Ian Wood to the position of director of Asia-Pacific consulting services. Prior to joining Recruitsoft, Mr. Callander previously served as managing director at Personic. Mr. Wood also joins Recruitsoft from Personic, where he most recently served as a consultant in the Asia-Pacific region. Recruitsoft currently has operations throughout North America, Europe and now a presence in the Asia-Pacific. "Our expansion demonstrates our continued commitment to providing enterprise-wide staffing management solutions to global organizations that, through the self service model, deliver higher quality processes, reduce costs and enhance productivity for the entire organization through enhanced hire quality," said Recruitsoft chief executive officer Louis Tetu.