WASHINGTON, Sept 13 (Reuters) - Taleo Corp., which provides recruiting and workforce management solutions, on Tuesday set its planned initial public offering at 6.7 million shares for between $14 and $16 per share.

The company said in an offering document filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission that it will sell 5.35 million shares and selling stockholders will offer another 1.34 million shares.

Taleo, which is based in San Francisco, is seeking to list its Class A common stock on Nasdaq under the symbol "TLEO."

The underwriters, led by Citigroup, will have the opportunity to buy another 1 million shares to cover over-allotments, according to the IPO prospectus.

Merrill Lynch & Co., JPMorgan, CIBC World Markets and ThinkEquity Partners LLC will assist.
