

Wednesday, June 30, 2004

Taleo Creates New Assessment Solution

Taleo Corporation, a provider of staffing management services and solutions -- formerly called Recruitsoft -- has unveiled Taleo Assessment™, a new solution that develops, deploys and integrates assessments across an organization. The Taleo Assessment solution is built on the Taleo Enterprise Staffing Management Suite™ and provides organizations with the platform, services, content and tools to manage the right assessment strategy across an entire organization. It also integrates validated assessment content from third parties, including customer proprietary assessments, as well as Taleo Industrial Psychologist developed validated assessments.

"We remain committed to evolving our solutions in order to best meet the needs of our customers," said Louis Tetu, chairman, president and CEO of Taleo. "Taleo Assessment is the newest solution built into our Enterprise Staffing Management Suite and further reflects our dedication to helping our customers generate additional value. Taleo Assessment can be used throughout the process and be configured for all types of workers including professional, hourly and more."