

Join the Taleo Research VP ROUNDTABLE

Strategic talent management and technology issues are more important than ever before. Consequently, your role as a senior staffing executive is increasingly challenging and visible.

To drive success, Taleo Research invites key executives focused on talent management to join an exclusive group of your peers. Members are Vice Presidents of Talent Acquisition, Vice Presidents of Recruiting (Technologies), Vice Presidents of Staffing, and Vice Presidents of HR — only senior executives who, at a minimum, have responsibility for:

- ▶ the total staffing and recruiting organization,
- ▶ the total staffing and recruiting technology,
- ▶ or the head of HR who has specific interest in talent management.

Peer networking provides an unparalleled opportunity to assess trends, strategic and financial metrics, best practices and benchmarking that impact on results for your organization.

Join your colleagues from leading global corporations in this exclusive community focused on strategic talent management to:

- ▶ Connect with your industry peers
- ▶ Learn new metrics such as ROW, time-to-contribution
- ▶ Quantify your contribution by calculating human capital valuations
- ▶ Understand the implications of trends and technology innovations
- ▶ Gain insight from Taleo Research's surveys and reports
- ▶ Be aware of new positions in other Fortune 2000 firms
